CHANGE ? CONFLICT AND CONVERGENCE: AUSTRAL?ASIAN SCENARIOS

Orient BlackSwan Pvt. Ltd, 2011. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 15 x 24 cm. This is the fourth volume in the series of Australian?Asian Association publications and carries on the interdisciplinary and international tradition of the same. The intensely provocative theme of ? change? is traced through motifs of convergence or conflict across a multiplicity of disciplines. The volume has attracted contributions from some of the best-known authorities in their different fields. The papers cover subjects ranging from Sri Lankan cricket to diplomacy on the world scene; from literary ?blogging? to trade performance; from Bollywood audiences to aboriginal rights in Australia and the development of Australian studies in Spain; from a nineteenth-century Shakespeare production in Sri Lanka to a performance of Bizet?s ?The Pearl Fishers? in Sydney. They cover the phenomenon of change as it manifests itself in a range of disciplines and highlight shared commonalities as well as contrasted experiences and perspectives. The book is a record of the richness of the dialogue between disparate groups connected by scholarly interest and intellectual curiosity, in fact, a global academic community.
