Forgotten Books, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Mentor, Vol. 3: January, 1893 Instead of a detailed account of the three sessions we give a summary of the chief discussions of the congress. Approval of a petition soliciting from the government, for the educated blind, the free exercise of civil and political rights. Approval of the draft of a law relating to the legal right of the blind to education. Hitherto the efforts made in this direction by delegates devoted to their cause have obtained, as their sole result, fruitless promises. In the budget of public instruction, which reserves nearly francs for the deaf-mutes, not a centime is appropriated for the blind. The thousands of francs which they obtain every year, and which, moreover, will probably diminish, are due to the benevolence of the minister.
