

Interviews and Videos: Present Like a Pro and Nail That Job (Paperback)

By Gwyneth E Letherbarrow Mba

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . How do you feel when you get the notification that you have been selected for an interview? Inspired? Terrified? The biggest stumbling block that lets people down at interviews is nerves! And people are usually nervous because they haven t prepared properly. You have been asked to interview because the company or organization wants to meet YOU. They want to know how it s going to feel to work with you, to see you every morning, to find out whether your personality is likely to match the team already there. The problem is as follows: very few people feel comfortable when having to talk about themselves. When you were growing up you were probably taught that you shouldn t show off about your achievements because others would think that you were big-headed or ego tistical. Yet that is exactly the issue you must address, and in an age where competency based interviews are all the rage, this is a skill you cannot be without. Your interview preparation should focus on you getting to know who YOU are, and because for most of..
