The boy was encouraged to visit rooms, read courses of study, decide upon his own gradeobjective (A5) and work toward it according to his own plans. He succeeded. He entered his grade, did satisfactory work, behaved properly, planned his next few years of life to include progress in mechanics, and was considered industrious, intelligent, responsible and ambitious. CHILD TRAINING: FEAR1 Fear is perhaps the most common emotion which human beings experience, yet it is extremely doubtful if the child has any inherent fear at birth. Most fears are produced by some experience through which the individual has had to pass in early life. In dealing with children we are From Mental Hvgiene Bulletin, April, 1925. very prone to speak of their foolish fears, yet they are foolish and unreasonable to use as adults simply because of our inability to understand how certain...
