10-10-10 Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . My Own True Story relates the experiences of a real estate appraiser which commenced when I was 21 years of age and continued for 40 years. The work involved inspecting various types of properties and preparing reports with extensive travel on assignments in northern, southwestern and eastern Ontario. Obtaining my appraisal designation resulted in working on more complex appraisals such as a courthouse, reformatory, golf courses and hotels. Besides knowing about some of my work assignments, you will be familiarized with the extent of corruption and fraud that exists and matters I have encountered dealing with people in the real estate industry in Toronto. This book is intended to help you understand that the world is governed by very different people from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes. To make this world a better place, we do not need wars, violence, shooting of innocent people, illegal drugs, organized crime, human trafficking, corrupt politicians, cigarettes, harmful food additives or chemicals in our drinking water and pollution of our environment. Also, we do not need politicians who are controlled by lobbyists, donors and special interests. The political system is broken and the world population is not overwhelmingly united in their search for change. Instead, it is a fragmented system where there is greed and people have allegiances to political parties they have supported for years. Just look at the statistics of the two world wars to gauge how human beings historically have treated one another. The total number of military and civilian casualties in World War I was more than 38 million. In World War II over 60 million people were killed, but estimates range from 50 million to more...
