

The Country-Cides of Namibia and Botswana: Brian's World

By David Fletcher

Troubador Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Country-Cides of Namibia and Botswana: Brian's World, David Fletcher, A mauling of mankind and a travel diary make rather odd bedfellows. However, in The Country-cides of Namibia and Botswana, these unlikely playmates not only share the same pages, but they also enfold each other in a somewhat intimate embrace. This remarkable union is all thanks to Brian. Because, as he embarks on a three-thousand-mile trip around Namibia and Botswana - which he records - he also embarks on an extended bout of 'assassinations'. To illustrate to his wife how humankind is ill-suited to be the custodian of the world, he seeks to show her how inept it is at running its own affairs - at the level of the nation state. He does this by providing her with a series of critical commentaries on thirty of the world's countries - commentaries that are so critical of these countries that they constitute nothing less than their murder. In short, he commits one act of country-cide after another and, in doing so, he assembles his indictment of mankind. So, for example, he explains why Canada can easily be regarded as the most John...
