In book two of the Steel MC: Daniel Hawk Whitehead grew up on an Indian reservation in an abusive family. No sooner than he turned eighteen, he left and joined the military. In Ranger school he met his partner and forever best friend, Mickey Squeak Sampson. Being stationed together in a war zone only strengthen the connection the two shared. After a tragic incident takes three men from their lives and the Army all but gives up on them, they face the hardest decision-they leave. The two men join Steel MC and find a new home and a way of life that suits them. Sharing women came as natural as their friendship, so when they rescued Salena O Riley as she was being dragged from a barn naked, injured and frightened, something inside both men fought to protect her. Could she be the one meant for them? Or the one to do what no other could? Break the bond between them.
