THE PROPHET (HARDBACK)

Xulon Press, United States, 2013. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Isaac Tinker is graduating from college, but his faith in God is being tested by the events of the tribulation. His father tried to prepare him but fell into sin. His mother has forsaken her faith. His boss has doubts about him. His roommate has been deceived. As the world encounters the Antichrist, the False Prophet, terrorism, food shortages, famine and disease, and persecution, Isaac reminisces about his time with his father and tries to make sense of it all. Who should he believe? What will be his fateful decision? Victor Willis Gutzler gave his life to Jesus in 1987 and asked God for a wife one year later. God answered his prayer in 1989 and has blessed him and Fay with two boys, Matthew Azariah and David Zephaniah. Victor has worked as a public school teacher, database specialist, and a GIS programmer analyst. God has led him to take a brief sabbatical and write his first book, The Prophet, in an effort to encourage backseat Christians to seriously consider the veracity of their faith in Jesus and prepare them for the real deception that is to come. In these last days, as the Body of Christ across the earth is awakening to the central role of Islam in Bible prophecy and the Last Days, Victor Gutzler s novel The Prophet is both deeply prophetic and instructive. -Joel Richardson, teacher and author of The Islamic Antichrist and The Mideast Beast.
