If slavery be an unrighteous usurpation, it is evidently the duty of all Christians, as they shall answer at the bar of God, to employ every proper means in effecting its entire abolition. The guilt of neglecting this duty is proportionate to the evil of the system. It is my intention, this morning, to show that British Colonial Slavery is so enormously criminal as to justify the application of the awful considerations of this passage to all Christians, who are not strenuously engaged in removing this weight of national guilt If, as we are told by those more immediately interested, it is the sin, not so much of themselves as of the whole nation, then these declarations become still more awful; and a louder emphasis is given to every word, as it is addressed, not only to the negligent, but...
