

The Clergy Dance (Paperback)

By Grayson Atha

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. The Clergy Dance is a story of a person who it seems by mistake began his journey. The dance began on a very conservative dance floor in a small town, where dancing was forbidden, and continued in rural as well as urban settings. It continues through encounters with civil rights; to a cross-racial appointment; an accusation of assault; through leadership of a church where people who were Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender could be seen but not heard; the author was fired from that church, but then offered his job back and returned to a warm reception-and helped hang a 30-foot banner on the church tower that said, Experience worship as God intended; ALL are welcome here. Whichever you believe, or don t, about the church, religion is about people loving other people. It s about congregating, eating, people smiling, babies crying, marriage, divorce, and death. It s about strengthening your faith, and questioning your faith-sometimes all in the same breath. It s about being angry, and about questioning God and the state of our world, and then it s about...
