Annick Press Ltd, Canada, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Deirdre Betteridge (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book. Celebrated children s writer Kathy Stinson explores what s-in-what concepts for young children. With a chorus of questions that encourage interaction, children will delight in playing with the language of spatial relationships, from a pocket holding treasure to a spoon with a face reflected in it. For one little girl, a day on the farm is full of familiar sights that lead to the unexpected. The barn has a horse in it .just like a house can have a me in it. A sock can t have a head it in, but it can have a toe in it. A pond can even have a splash in it. Best of all, when Mommy comes home, she has a blanket that has a wiggle in it--a brand new baby. Joining charming pictures and a satisfying story with language-learning ideas, A Pocket Can Have a Treasure in It will hold the attention of parents and children alike.
