Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is a genuine attempt to set the record straight in regard to the subject of tithe and giving in the Church. There are divergent teachings, shades of opinion and practices in regard to the subject of tithe and giving in the Church. While some believe a Christian must regularly give a tenth of his income to God in order to secure God s favor and escape His curse; others believe that this is not necessary since Christ died to make us inherit the blessing of Abraham and deliver us from the curse of the Law. What then is the true position of the Bible in regard to this subject? Should a Christian tithe? Is tithing a necessity for accessing God s blessings? Where is the place of the finished work of Christ? Can the redeemed be under the curse of the Law? Why were the Apostles of Christ silent about tithing? Do we need to make pledges and vows in order to obtain God s favor and blessings? What about the first-fruit, do we need to pay to obtain God s blessings? Are there guiding principles in relation to giving in the New Testament? You will find answers to all these and other related questions in this book. The book was written in an easy-to-read version. Scriptural passages were cited copiously in order to allow the Bible to speak for itself. Important historical records were also cited to unravel the origin of tithe in the Church. To whom was this book written? -Everyone who is interested in knowing the truth -Those who want to know the position of the Bible on the subject -Those who accept the Word of God...
