A remarkable one, discovered this spring in a Buddhist book newly published by the London Pali Text Society, has called forth the present essay. For fuller information my readers must refer to the Tokyo book. Our somewhat provincial education has not yet made us realize that, at the time of Christ, India was one of the four great Powers of the earth. The other three were China, Rome and Parthia. But India was the greatest intellectually, and her then most popular religion, Buddhism, was the dominant spiritual force upon the continent of Asia. It is to be regretted that so few theologians and even Orientalists are acquainted with Pali literature Our culture has too long been bounded by the River Euphrates, and the central fact of the world s religious history has not yet taken its place in the historical imagination of Europe and America.
