Createspace, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .(Third Edition) I keep having the same dream. At night, I reach to extinguish the lights. I lay down, but then I realize the room is still well lit, so well lit as a matter of fact, that its brightness far exceeds the former light. I search the room to find the source of the light. I recheck the night lamp, although I m sure I ve turned it off. I look everywhere but I can t find its source. As I make my way to the bed, I stop.for I notice something strange. Yes strange indeed: the shadows seem to shift every time I move. It is at this point I realize that the light is flowing from inside of me. No sooner than I realize that I am the source of the light, the light grows brighter until all shadows peel away and there is no more place for them. Having found the source of the light, I lay me down to sleep, and pray to you, my soul to keep. But there s just one...
