

Declaration Statesmanship: A Course in American Government

By Richard Ferrier Ph D, Andrew Seeley Ph D

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 277 x 218 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This course is unique. There is no other course like it available to the American high school student. It unites history, philosophy, and what we call civics in a dynamic blend of narrative and argument. As much as possible it deploys original sources and fundamental texts, and the writing of the authors endeavors to match, as their capacities allowed, the thoughtfulness and elegance of the authors who inspired us. Declaration Statesmanship has been designed as a one semester (14 week) course in American Government or Civics for eleventh or twelfth grade students. The authors have tried throughout the course to direct the students attention to the writings and documents of the time, many of which are quoted at length in the textbook, while others are contained in the accompanying Book of Readings. A Teacher s Manual, with lesson plans, detailed teacher strategies, comments on the text, quizzes and tests, is also available. The course has three principal parts. In the first, the text explores the ideals and principles that created this nation and are expressed in the Declaration....
