Excerpt from Forty-Fourth Annual Report on the State of the Asylum, for the Relief of Persons: Deprived of the Use of Their Reason Of the seventy-six patients who have been residents of the Asylum during the year, two have died, and thirteen have been discharged, leaving sixty-one, of whom twenty-nine are men, and thirty-two are women, under care at the present time. Of the thirteen patients discharged, eight, of whom four were of each sex, were restored; two, one of each sex were improved; and three, one man and two women were stationary. Of those who were discharged restored, two were in the Institution less than three months; three for more than three and less than six months; two for more than six and less than twelve months, and one for more than twelve months; and the average duration of treatment of those who were restored, was one hundred and eighty-four days. Twenty-two patients have been under special curative treatment during the year, of whom fifteen were cases of recent, and seven of chronic insanity, with the following results. Of the...
