Nature Has No Boundaries is for persons with powerful minds and strong will power, It is for those, who possesses that inner strength; the ones who have that burning passion for the art of poetry and also for those that have the ability to appreciate the love, pain, joy, sadness and the roller coaster of life s journey. The contents of this book are based clearly on the author s personal experiences, along with his personal feelings. In addition it is also based on the things he has seen and the thing he has heard. He has pledged to deliver to his readers everything they desire and more; not withholding any vital information or even spearing anyone s feelings, as the truth he speaks. Containing a variety of flavors, the book s love scenes and mild pomographies should keep you on the edge as you explore. The current affairs of the world s issues and its histories should have you well informed and the glamour s of life will have you reminiscing, then you will...
