A Force To Be Reckoned With - Book 2 of the Reckoning Trilogy 5 of 5 Star Review. You ll love it. I did. The middle book of a trilogy is often a slog: the characters are established, the setting and plot are established, and the final reckoning are one book away. Not so with A Force. New bad guys crawl out of the wood pile. New mysteries get solved. Even good guys get caught in their own missteps. And more clues to who is the one dishing out vengeance. Russell Salsbury Amazon Reviewer A Force to Be Reckoned With. A bold arsonist is on the loose. Who killed Fugate, the wife beating rapist? An infamous drug dealer comes back home and gets her just desserts. Is there a vigilante killer plaguing rural Kentucky? When his rural trailer burns, Tom Padgett tracks down the scum responsible. His normally cool composure disappears when he threatens the lowlife he believes to be the arsonist. Is the genie coming out of the bottle? Sheriff Bill Wilson is obsessed with Tom Padgett and has an equally strong devotion to his Jim Beam bottle. He concocts a trap to expose Tom by uncovering damning information about Padgett. When Becky Adkins returns to Kentucky from her hideout in Tennessee, she re-establishes her drug dealing profession and becomes trapped in a web of conspiracy. As Padgett and Wilson struggle with their inner demons, events spiral out of control and end with a deadly outcome. Just when you thought you had everyone figured out in Delayed Reckoning, A Force To Be Reckoned With will keep you guessing. If you like twisted plots and great characters, this is a must follow-up.
