Albufeira is one of the most popular beach resorts in the Algarve region of southern Portugal. Once a small fishing village it has been developed into an attractive holiday resort which attracts many tourists from the colder parts of northern Europe and elsewhere. Many vacationers return year-after-year because of the lovely beaches, excellent climate and the fine restaurants, clubs and pubs. Albufeiras Old Town has historical attractions and culture whilst the Strip is a newer area which includes the suburbs of Montechoro and Arias de Sao Joo.
