Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Birthdays of Washington and Lincoln Superintendents and Teachers of North Dakota: The State Department of Education wishes to call your attention to the proper observance of the anniversaries of the birthdays of Washington and Lincoln. The twelfth and twenty-second days of February are legal holidays in this state by virtue of statutory enactment. That these days should be properly observed by setting apart a portion of each for exercises which will impress on the minds of the pupils of our state lessons of patriotism and devotion to civic duty. The country, which is without national heroes, is one in which the people are not patriotic. We do not advocate hero worship, nor that a man should be honored for things he has not done, but we do wish to teach that the great men, who, by their patriotic devotion to this country, made possible the liberty which we now enjoy, should be revered by succeeding generations and their deeds should be reviewed in such a manner as will best bring to our boys and...
