Ultimately, Cultureship will help readers achieve fabulous outcomes for their teams. Cultureship: The ABCs of Business Leadership, has far-reaching implications in shaping the way leaders perceive and strategically develop their cultures to deliver bottom line results. The book clearly shows how culture is not only directly connected to business results, but that contrary to popular belief, culture can change results quickly. The primary audience for this book is leaders. They can be just starting their business career or polishing their skills after many years of experience. They can be leading non-profit organizations or large corporation. They could simply be leading a committee and trying to get it right. The one must is that they are willing to learn, transform and achieve their best leadership and greatest personal potential. Jason's energy and...
