Originally intended as young adult fiction it s now receiving reviews from readers of all ages. With a cast of quirky characters and plenty of sharp dialogue this paranormal mystery beautifully combines the supernatural with a touch of humour to create an inspirational adventure with a spiritual message. Sharpe s debut novel applies a fresh fantasy premise to a classic coming-of-age tale. This book s great strength is its keen insight into the nature of human fear, hope and love. Clever and affecting in a vividly imagined world. Kirkus Reviews A rare discovery - a book for all ages. It s not often that a story resonates and captivates...
