Excerpt from Exercises: Bi-Centennial Commemoration, Burning of Medfield by Indians, King Philip's War, February 21, 1876 This Committee immediately projected those arrangements which a suitable recognition of such an event required. Invitations were extended to the authorities and citizens of towns closely allied to our own in former and latter years; to members of the State Government; and to many individuals connected by various ties with past and present residents of the place. Distinguished speakers were solicited to take part in the exercises of the day. Preparations were made for appropriate music and for every foreseen necessity of the occasion. And on the morning of the 21st of February - a day of unusual brightness and mildness of temperature, - the public ceremonies were introduced by ringing of the village bells, and the firing of a national salute by a detachment from Battery B, of the Massachusetts Artillery, under charge of Captain Baxter. A similar salute with ringing of the bells was repeated at noon, and the firing of guns, at fifteen minutes interval, was continued throughout the day. The Town Hall...
