Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from History and Record of the Proceedings of the People of Lexington and Its Vicinity: In the Suppression of the True American, From the Commencement of the Movement on the 14th of August, 1845, to Its Final Termination on Monday, the 18th of the Same Month The propriety of a public meeting, to be summoned by a notice, which had already been prepared by Mr. Hickman, was also considered. Mr. Marshall alluded to the great delicacy of his own position in relation to the whole question. He deprecated the affair taking a party turn, and suggested the propriety of making out a list of citizens of both parties, and notifying them by private notice, to attend that evening at the Court House at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of opening a correspondence with Mr. Clay upon the subject. The list was made out, and Mr. Megowan undertook to notify the gentlemen. In case of a failure to induce Mr. Clay to discontinue his paper by an application in writing, it was at the same time agreed among these gentlemen, that there should then be proposed a general call of the people of the City and County, and several days given for the notice. Above all, it was agreed that party should be kept entirely out of view. The design was from the beginning, to prevent bloodshed and violence if possible; at all events, by concentrating the public mind, and the whole people, to prevent partial movements and individual action, which under the peculiar circumstances of this case, and the relations personal as well as political, of the Editor of the True American, might have led...
