Xulon Press. Paperback. Condition: New. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.2in. This Christian nonfiction book attempts to explain the significance of the Declaration of Independence to the United States of America's foundation and future. The Declaration united the colonies of America against the British King by the tenet that all men are created equal. However, the country was still bound by the chains of slavery. By digging into history, Universal Mind and the Truth of The Declaration of Independence exposes details about our the U. S. government, leaders, and political structure that have been overlooked for years. There is a forgotten truth in the universal mind that we all possess, but we must unlock its potential. Because of self-desires, there is not unity among men. All men are created with a universal mind, and therefore are created equally by God. Thomas Jefferson was a great man and leader of our country when it was newly founded, however he lacked the other half of the truth, which inhibited his actions. Since he was not aware he was in the inherited bondage of slavery and the ground state zero of Position in the Truth in the State of Nature. Christian theology, Christian history, American government, Civil War, Revolutionary War, Civil Rights, racism, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. , George Washington.
