Modelli di episteme neoplatonica nella Firenze del '400 Le gnoseologie di Giovanni Pico della Mirandola e di Marsilio Ficino

By Fellina, Simone

Olschki, 2014. broccura. Condition: nuovo. Il volume persegue il tentativo di ricostruire le gnoseologie di Marsilio Ficino e Giovanni Pico della Mirandola nel contesto più ampio delle loro opzioni metafisiche e antropologiche. Nella riflessione ficiniana vengono fatti coesistere apporti procliani e ben più importanti motivi plotiniani, come la dottrina dell'anima non discesa. Almeno fino all'Heptaplus Giovanni Pico mostra sostanzialmente di condividere l'orientamento plotiniano del platonismo di Ficino, cercando nel contempo una conciliazione con l'aristotelismo in nome dell'ideale della pax philosophica. The book aims at reconstructing Ficino's and Pico's gnosiological ideas, framing them in the broader context of their metaphysical and anthropological thought. In Ficino's reflection, elements of Proclus's thought coexist with much more significant Plotinus's motives, such as the doctrine of the undescended soul. Pico seems to share Ficino's tendency to Plotinian Neoplatonism - at least until the Heptaplus -, trying at the same time a connection with the Aristotelianism on behalf of the ideal of the pax philosophica. Studi picchiani 17 cm 17 x 24, vi-230 pp. Libro.
