Pinocchio vs. the Real Boy is a call to all of us youth workers to be real and let go of the masks we wear. We struggle on our own too often, neglecting to get rid of the junk in our hearts and lives, which leads to unhealthy ministry and teens who are disillusioned. Pinocchio vs. the Real Boy is a guide to authentic living and teaching that will enable us to start healthy, stay healthy, and teach healthy. In this book, Marv shares stories and insights from his personal journey that will help youth, parents, and leaders meet the burning desire in the hearts of many for transparency in the Church. -John Stanko, author of Changing the Way We Do Church I believe you ll find Marv s words helpful and his spirit contagious. I love his passionate heart and call to help us all remember to put first things first.
