Not illustrated. 1921 Excerpt: .for at least three-quarters of the games his team is scheduled to roll. After having rolled 75 per cent, of the games, any bowler may direct the bowling committee to consider the average he has made as final. On the other hand, if he so wishes, he may continue his average, improving it possibly, until the end of his league schedule. The Springfield-Kansas City match scheduled for the week ending December 3, 1921, was postponed at the request of Springfield due to storm break conditions. The annual telegraph tournament will be conducted in the latter part of April. The prizes for this event will be worth trying for. There is a large trophy for the five man event, a trophy for the doubles and a bowling ball with carrier for the singles and one for the high total of all events. Any team will be eligible for...
