

The Man Who Knew Too Much

By G. K. Chesterton

Dover Publications. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 176 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.3in. x 0.5in. . . . dazzlingly executed and richly atmospheric. The Armchair DetectiveA prolific and popular writer, G. K. Chesterton (1874-1936) is best known as the creator of detective-priest Father Brown (even though Chesterton's mystery stories constitute only a small fraction of his writings). The eight adventures in this classic British mystery trace the activities of Home Fisher, the man who knew too much, and his trusted friend Harold March. Although Home's keen mind and powerful deductive gifts make him a natural sleuth, his inquiries have a way of developing moral complications. Notable for their wit and sense of wonder, these tales offer an evocative portrait of upper-crust society in pre-World War I England. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
