Reviews

A very amazing publication with perfect and lucid information. We have read through and that i am certain that i will planning to study once more yet again in the future. You will not really feel monotony at anytime of the time (that's what catalogues are for about should you question me).

FIRST SESSION. Charlotte, N. C., 13th Aug. , 1854. The Association met in the Hall of the Chamber of Commerce and was called to order at 10 oclock A. M. by the President, W. H. Green, in the following remarks: Gentlemen and Members of the Association: The hour appointed for the opening of this Convention has arrived. By the kind invitation of our Charlotte friends, we meet here, to-day, in Mecklenburg county, where Liberty was born, to hold our fifth annual meeting I trust that every member piesent, will feel it to be his duty, as well as his privilege, to do all that he can towards its harmonj and success. I now have the pleasure of introducing to you Col. Ham. C. Jones, of this city, who will welcome us in behalf of the Druggists of Charlotte. and was opened with prayer by the Rev. J. T. Bagwell, D. D. Col. H. C. Jones then, in a few chosen and timely remarks, welcomed the Association to the city. The President called upon Mr. E. M. Nadal to respond to the address of welcome, which he did as follows: I know that I but speak the feelings of the entire Association when I say that we heartily appreciate the kind words of welcome and cheer to which we have just listened with so much interest and pleasure. Actions speak louder than words, and although we were pleased to hear the words...
