I T WAS on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception that the idea first occurred to me of writing a popular work on the Litany of Loreto. This Litany has been held in honor throughout the Church for many centuries: it is daily recited by millions of the faithful, and has even become an integral part in some of our public acts of worship. We have therefore thought that it would not be- out of place to inquire into its doctrinal meaning, and to give to light the fruits of our studies for the edification of the Christian people. For it seemed to us that while others on this great occasion were offering to Mary profound and erudite treatises, this tender Mother would none the less deign to accept a work, unworthy indeed of her, but yet a pledge of boundless love and gratitude. Encouraged by this hope, we set ourself to the task, and were presents surprised to see how easy it is, by the application of simple principles, to trace...
