

Adventures in Bettles Bay

By John H Nabors Jr

Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .John Nabors second youth adventure story is about an eleven-year old boy and his grandfather during a visit to relatives in Anchorage, Alaska. This story features the boy on a four-day trip into the wilderness of Prince William Sound in Alaska. The uncle s new pleasure boat can sleep 4 to 5 people. The grandson along with his grandfather, are invited to join his uncle on the trip in his boat. His twelve year-old cousin and his thirteen year old sister make up the crew. The uncle and cousins launch the boat and begin the adventure from Whittier, Alaska, a small city perched at the end of Passage Canal, a 600-foot deep fjord at the western end of Price William Sound. The destination of the crew of cousins is Bettles Lagoon in Bettles Bay, a bay north on the west side of Port Wells. The Lagoon is a quiet anchorage surrounded by snow-capped mountains. Another boating family joins the host family in Bettles Bay a day later in their own boat. The father brings his twin girls who...
