emp3books. Paperback. Condition: New. 130 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Muddledydo, the original accident prone witch returns to her witching ways for a short time to help Sillybeth find out who and or what is causing all the trouble with the farmers. The farmers are losing cattle, sheep, goats, pigs, chickens, and all sorts of their crops to some mysterious invaders of their farms; Sillybeth has traced certain signs but she is unable to handle the problem by herself. So she decides to call on Muddledydo to quit her easy life as the wife of the local tavern keeper, and help out in Sillybeths time of need. The action soon starts with Sillybeth getting into trouble trying to set spell traps for the thieves, and when she tries to follow them through the forest, she finds herself in a situation no witch should ever get into! Being attacked by the elves and their leaders, the goblins, Sillybeth needs help. When Muddledydo agrees to help her they set out to settle things with the culprits, then the fun really starts as our two intrepid witches of mayhem and mishap get on the trail of the EVIL ELVES and GOBLINS! Muddledydo is astounded by what she finds, not at first quite believing what Sillybeth has been confronted with. They do not get things all their own way this time, finding the goblins very crafty and evil. This book is not as funny as the previous two books of our accident prone witches. I first got the idea for another story with the Witches of Hambone but the idea seemed better suited to our two dodgy witches, who prove themselves to be very good in dangerous situations, albeit a little shaky at times.
