The principal object of the meeting will be to take steps to secure the grand council meeting of the fraternity for San Francisco in 1915. Active and alumni members from both chapters will be in attendance at the meeting, which will be held in the afternoon, a banquet to follow at night. Several professors from both institutions are expected to attend. Among the prominent members present will be Prof. Laird J. Stabler, a charter member of the Ann Arbor Chapter and dean of the College of Pharmacy in the University of Southern California. Darwin Ting and Archie Ridgway of Porterville, who are employed in Los Angeles, are members of the fraternity. Todd C. Claubes and Stanley Young, the latter employed at Holden Holden s, are also members. Alfred Hemphill,...
