It was pure a masterpiece, enticing, a beautiful tease. We are different, she murmured, her head on his chest. Yes, and I like it. A lot. they danced away in the fading moonlight, she could feel his heartbeat and he could hear her soft, rhythmic breaths. Adelene was a simple twelve year old, residing in a small town of South Africa. She wasn t the kind who belonged to a high school clique or the one who d be found setting her hair before the class. She s the one who lives the life her way, in the football field. Not from an average well off family, her father being a drunkard, no one taught her how to dream big, or live big. Then she met Ashton Dawson. The son of one of the richest businessmen of the town, six years elder to her. After a very shaky start to their friendship, they gradually found solace in each other. It was a different friendship, to tally exceptional. Which way will it head? Will the...
