Executive Summary are not required to be documented under the NEPA regulations issued by the Council on Environmental Quality, and FAAs policy also does not require that all projects that are categorically excluded be documented. Without documentation, when no FAA funding approval is involved, a reliable determination cannot be made about whether categorical exclusion reviews are taking place. Guidance and coordination lacking for Clean Air Act: Many airport officials told GAO that they are having difficulty understanding their responsibilities under the Clean Air Act for conducting reviews for projects that expand airport capacity, in part because of insufficient guidance and technical assistance. Specifically, 22 of the nations 50 busiest commercial service airports reported that uncertainty about complying with the acts requirements was a major concern for them. Because EPAs Clean Air Act regulations group airports together with very different sectors - such as ski resorts and...
