*****.Relationships. So many trees give their lives in the cause of understanding, improving, dissecting, and building relation-ships. The lion s share of these books are written about creating positive, helpful environments for reinforcing our relation-ships. This book is not one of them. You see my problem lies in the fact that these environ-ments must be created. It is difficult enough just to live in and understand the environ-ments in which we find ourselves let alone endeavor to create new ones. I always read these books and got fired up about the ideas in the book and went about creating the new environment the author suggested so I could improve my relationships. The trouble was that I worked so hard creating the environment that I lost sight of the im-provements I sought for my relationships. The method be-came the goal and it never worked for me the way I d hoped or the how author said it would. After years of frustration I began to wonder how we might better our relationships in the midst of...
