A GENERAL PREPARATION TOWARDS A HOLY AND BLESSED DEATH, BY WAY OP CONSIDERATION. Sect. I. - Consideration of the Vanity and Shortness of Man s Life. A MAN is a bubble (said the Greek proverb) which Lucian represents with advantages and its proper circumstances, to this purpose, saying, All the world is a storm, and men rise up in their several generations like bubbles descending a Jove pluvio, from God and the dew of heaven, from a tear and drop of man, from nature and providence: and some of these instantly sink into the deluge of their first parent, and are hidden in a sheet of water, having had no other business in the world but to be born that they might be able to die: others float up and down two or three turns, and suddenly disappear, and give their place to others: and they that live longest upon the face of the waters are in perpetual motion, restless and uneasy, and being crushed with a great drop of a cloud, sink into flatness and a froth; the change not being great, it being hardly possible it should be more a nothing than it was before. So is every man: he is born in vanity and sin; lie comes into the world like morning mushrooms, soon thrusting up their heads into the air, and conversing with their kindred of the same production, and as soon as they, turn into dust and forgetfulness: some of them without any other interest in the affairs of the world but that they made their parents a little glad, and very sorrowful: others ride longer in the storm, it may be...
