Review of the book: Book, Women s Prison contains curious and funny stories from the life of the heroine Nelly. The Author tells her story: Nelly was kidnapped when she was a schoolgirl, raped and abused by a repeat offender who hold her in captivity, and during the same time he continue to make other crimes. Fortunately arrest them, but instead to release her immediately, she remains in custody. Ludmil managed to twist things, and escape of the most heavily guarded detention facility in Bulgaria, Nelly remains hostage to the authorities. Past almost four years until Nelly receive her freedom, past three years and eight months, while Justice clarify the situation and release her. Pass almost four years in attempts Nelly to protect her rights and to clarify the situation to the authorities. After she having exhausted all the possibilities, she turned to the Strasbourg Court for help. Almost immediately Nelly was released. Subsequently won the case against the State Bulgaria. But in his book, the author emphasizes the fun moments that had spent behind bars rather than the bitter truth that Nelly is deprived of freedom, away from her child and she was subjected to psychological abuse - isolation. Nelly s investigator Deliberately left her alone for two years in darkness without books, without meeting with a lawyer. In arrest give to Nelly fed, which fed only to pigs. The heroine Nelly trying to escape in her mind from the reality of prison, as she speak, contacting with other people, she met there. The author Lavi Roa tells their stories and managed to laugh us, shows us another world where people still live with dreams and desires. The...
