The Chase of a Shadow: A Narrative Poem in Four Cantos was written by Irish-American Denis M. Cronin. Completed in 1898, the poem recounts the trying and, according to Cronin s preface, true-life story of Fergus, a young, Irish aristocrat from The Sheep s Head Peninsula in Southwest County Cork. After Fergus is separated from his home, his true love and all he holds dear by events following Ireland s 1798 Rebellion, he struggles to find his way in his new home, Boston, clinging to his memories even as the years go by. Which side was Fergus on, Irish Rebel or English Rule? Does he succeed despite the odds? Are Fergus and his true love reunited in the end? Or is this story a tragedy? Read The Chase of a Shadow and find out for yourself! Denis Cronin died in August of 1929, having given his never published manuscript to his youngest daughter Cecelia. 58 years later, Cecelia mailed her father s manuscript to her granddaughter, Jenny Warsen, who published the first edition of The Chase of...
