He is the conqueror, not of men indeed, but of the country. It is then allowable to stop, and await the early and dreaded Russian winter. Vitepsk will be an excellent cantonment. The course of the Dwina and Borysthenes will mark the French line. The siege artillery will go to Riga, on which last position the left of the army will rest. Vitepsk, to which Nature has given woods, and to which he, Napoleon, will give walls, will serve as an entrenched camp in the centre. The right wing will extend to Bo-Bruisk, of which it must take possession, and blockhouses must be constructed along the whole line. Thus encamped, nothing will be wanting to the army. Besides the magazines of Dantzic, Vilna., and Minsk, Courland and Samogitia will contribute their share. Thirty-six immense ovens are to be...
