THE LONG MARCH BACK

FormAsia. 1 Cloth(s), 2003. hard. Book Condition: New. In 1971, when the country had been isolated behind a great wall of communism for more than two decades, the People's Republic of China surprised the outside world by extending hospitality to young table tennis players from five countries, including the United States. Here in words and images is a portrait of a people about to embark on the Long March Back to rejoin the international community of nations, underscoring the startling...
