Reviews

This book will never be straightforward to start on looking at but extremely exciting to read. I actually have read through and that i am sure that i am going to gonna go through once more again in the future. I am happy to explain how this is the very best book i have read through in my individual lifestyle and may be he best publication for at any time.

Increase of Schools and Scholars in Private Schools under Inspection only. This return is for Kolhapur, Meeraj, Sanglee, and Moodhole. The return from the Jamkhundee Master is not received--The increase of schools and scholars shown in the above return is chiefly caused by the transfer of Southern Maratha States Schools from the head of Government to the head of Private, as noticed above. The actual increase in these schools is--16 schools and 798 scholars, 21 A pi Detail of para 3. Private The return above given of Deputy Inspectors examinations of Government Vernacular Schools, and their results according to standards, may be thus summarized, to show the state of Vernacular Education. 6,111 boys were examined, and the percentages passed under different standards are as follows: --i. e., of those (6,111) presented for examination under the first four standards, something over one-half can do sums and write to dictation, less than half can parse and explain a lesson read, and less than one-fifth pass in History and Geography. Or, taking the total attendance at the schools examined (12,700, more than one-half of whom were below the lowest standard of examination), it appears that, in schools examined, about one-fourth of the boys at school can do sums and write to dictation, and less than one-fourth can parse and explain a lesson read; and less than one-tenth pass in History and Geography. No Vernacular School, it appears, was teaching during the year up...
