

Oglethorpe's Dream: A Picture of Georgia (Hardback)

By David Bottoms

University of Georgia Press, United States, 2001. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 252 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A panoramic view of the state in words and images; Oglethorpe's Dream unites the award-winning photography of Diane Kirkland with the beautifully powerful writing of David Bottoms, Georgia's poet laureate. The result is a stunning portrait of the lands, waters, culture, and people of Georgia. From the sea islands to the cities, from the wiregrass to the mountain forests, Kirkland gives us a gallery of spectacular images showcasing the state in its breadth, beauty, and diversity. Marrying landscape to history, Bottoms gives voice to a people filled with courage, pain, conviction, and, above all, hope. Together they capture the natural beauty of the diverse landscape, the richness of the state's storied past, and the essence of its spirited people. Isn't that what you always hoped for, Bottoms writes, to find a place and yourself in that place? Oglethorpe's Dream helps us all to see a place called Georgia, and there to find something of ourselves.
