

Preschool Art: It's the Process, Not the Product

By Mary Ann Kohl

Gryphon House, U.S., United States, 2003. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 277 x 211 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Over 200 activities encourage children to explore and understand their world through art experiences that emphasize the process of art, not the product. The first chapter introduces basic art activities appropriate for all children, while the subsequent chapters, which build on the basic activities in the first chapter, are divided by seasons. Activities are included for painting, drawing, collage, sculpture, and construction. Indexes organized by art medium and project name help teachers plan. 260 pages. - Benjamin Franklin Award - Early Childhood News Director's Award Preschool Art is a lifesaver . . . All the activities are easy, all are fun--the emphasis here is on the process, rather than specific results--and none require any elaborate materials . . . a real find.-- Sesame Street Parents, Picks for Parents Preschool Art offers help to parents of preschoolers struggling to meet the challenge of their children's creative impulses. Prodigies aside, most kids this age aren't interested in the final product; they are into the doing of art . . . There is no right or wrong way, only their...
