

All That Lies Broken (Ashmores Folly) (Volume 2)

By Lindsey Forrest

St. John Publishing Group, Inc. Paperback. Condition: New. 566 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.3in. From the ashes of great tragedy rises a great love. . . After fourteen years, Laura and Richard now stand face to face, equals, at the same place in their lives. She is no longer that girl, separated by time and violence from the only man she has ever loved. He no longer stands alone, a young man devastated by betrayal and his own terrible folly. But the world is not so easily forgotten. Even as Richard begins to dismantle the past that blocks his future, he struggles to open his heart to the last love of his life. Laura chafes against her place on the edge of his life, wanting so much more, no longer willing to settle for less. I wont be the woman you cant admit to. Enemies challenge the life they are struggling to build together. An estranged wife seeks to smash the man she hates so fiercely. A younger brother rages against the man who bested him in life and in death. Something always gets broken. . . . Secrets unravel. A world begins to shatter when a reporter stumbles...
