FBC LTD, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Demand and Price Situation: February 15, 1939 Wholesale prices are now at nearly the same level as in February of 1938. 1936. 1935 and 1931. Price trends during those years, however, differed widely. In 1931 and 1938 prices declined to the end of the year by 10 and 4 points, respectively, whereas in 1936 prices rose 6 points. In 1935 prices remained practically unchanged except for a slight upward movement in the latter part of the year. Of those four general price trends, that of 1935 seems most in line with the current price outlook. Prices as a whole are not likely to fluctuate widely in the next few months. Prices of raw materials may show greater strength later in the year if industrial activity experiences some further improvement. Some further declines in prices of finished goods may occur.
