Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Evolution of New Testament Criticism and the Consequent Outlook for to-Day: Inaugural Address October 5, 1892 One of Germany's noted theologians, for more than a generation professor at one of her noted universities, has said concerning the present biblical criticism: We have had too many experiences in this respect, have seen too many hypotheses come and go to be worried at the criticism that is abroad to-day. Who knows what grave-diggers already stand at the door? We older ones had experience in Baur's criticism of the New Testament, and some of us took an active part in opposing it. Where is that criticism now? How startling was Strauss in his day. But who is there now that has not abandoned the theory that the life of Jesus consists in myths.- How many in Germany, even in scientific circles, compromised themselves by their attitude toward Renan's life of Christ.- But who now speaks seriously of the French romance? I have referred to Dr. Luthardt's words as an apology for what must...
