Transitional Drug Abuse Treatment Statement of Work Page 5 circumstances, criminality, and drug using behaviors. Definitions Examples-a. Examples of life circumstances include: changing attitudes, reducing the anger hostility level, improving family problem solving, improving skills in interpersonal conflict resolution, alleviating personal and circumstantial barriers to service (i. e. , client motivation, environmental stressors), ensuring the inmate is able to recognize risky situations, and has a concrete and well rehearsed plan for dealing with those situations, replacing the skills of lying, stealing, and aggression with more pro-social skills. b. Criminality include targeting of behavior changes such as: changing antisocial behavior and feelings, reducing antisocial peer associations, promoting familial communication, increasing self-control, self management, and problem solving skills, etc. The Bureau has found these objectives mesh well with the traditional individual and or group therapy, as well as pro-social skill-building techniques. The contractor must have a treatment philosophy that directly works in conjunction with the identified Bureau program philosophy. The contractor must have treatment approaches targeting the inmates life circumstances, criminality, and drug using behaviors. The contractor must have...
